

1st QUARTERLY ACTIVITY REPORT

On June 20, 2022, the newly created Office of the Sport Integrity Commissioner (“OSIC”) launched its first phase of operations and Canada’s new independent safe sport mechanism became Abuse-Free Sport. The present report provides an overview of the 1st quarter of operations of the OSIC, in terms of key activities and available statistics.

ACTIVITY OVERVIEW

- Onboarded 5 Program Signatories
- Published Universal Code of Conduct to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport version 6.0 as well as 7 new Policies and Procedures
- Launched Complaint Management process
- Launched Support Services program (Legal Aid Program and Mental Health Support Program)
- Launched Sport Environment Assessment (“SEA”) process (see timeline below)
- Launched an Abuse-Free Sport Webinar Series and hosted the “Opening Conversation with the Commissioner”
- Created units of independent investigators & assessors
- Provided services of the OSIC to 6 provincial/territorial delegations and offered services of the Canadian Sport Helpline to all participants during the 2022 Canada Summer Games

QUARTERLY STATISTICS¹

- 56: total number of safe sport related inquiries received by the Canadian Sport Helpline
- 24: total number of complaints/reports received by the OSIC
- 67% of complaints/reports received by the OSIC arising from non-Program Signatories
- 25% of complaints/reports deemed admissible by the OSIC according to OSIC jurisdiction and authority

SPORT ENVIRONMENT ASSESSMENTS DEVELOPMENT²

REPORT DATED:
September 22, 2022

COVERING THE PERIOD:
June 20, 2022 to September 19, 2022

NEXT REPORT:
January 2023

1 To maintain confidentiality of the parties involved, further statistics regarding Complaints/Reports will be provided by the OSIC on an annual basis.
 2 Information about the status of assessments that will be accepted by the OSIC will be made available on the Assessment Index of the OSIC website. Statistics regarding Assessments will be provided beginning next quarterly report.